

Green City: 49 Ways To Make It Happen

Vancouver

OCTOBER 2006//$4.50

WORLD'S FARE

23

Great Ethnic Restaurants

Why Women Anchors Are Taking Over

The Art And Soul Of Father Dunstan

Microbrews AND Mennonite Sausage

Get Happy With The DALAI LAMA

Surrey Mayor Dianne Watts Sounds Off

PM 40064924

0 55113 17131 4

SCREEN GEM

Ross MacMillan designed this graphic screen as part of a series of home decor items made from obsolete traffic light lenses (we also loved the amber light candy bowls). At Industrial Artifacts, 49 Powell St., 604-874-7797. Industrialartifacts.com

MATERIAL GIRLS

Sarah Gee and Lindsay Brown of Ouno Design make gorgeous limited-edition decor accessories from quality vintage materials including Japanese cottons and linens, mod European graphic prints from the '60s and '70s (left), and sheepskin and fur reclaimed from vintage coats. Check out their fall warehouse sale on October 7; Ounodesign.com for details.

BE SEATED

The Mirra chair ($950) by Herman Miller is a perfect example of cradle-to-cradle technology, and is 96 percent recyclable at the end of its stylish life. At LivingSpace, 188 Kingsway, 604-683-1116. LivingSpace.com

FREEWHEELIN'

This retro-cool, zero-emission electric scooter has a range of 40 kilometres per charge, and zips along at 60 km/h. $3,645 at Green World Electric Vehicles, 3825 Main St., 604-879-4559. Gwev.com

Don't miss the Green with Envy rooms at the Vancouver Home & Interior Design Show, Oct. 12-15. Cantu, LivingSpace, Jorg+Olif and Fluevog will be offering their green wares.

MATERIAL GIRLS

Sarah Gee and Lindsay Brown of Ouno Design make gorgeous limited-edition decor accessories from quality vintage materials including Japanese cottons and linens, mod European graphic prints from the '60s and '70s (left), and sheepskin and fur reclaimed from vintage coats. Check out their fall warehouse sale on October 7; Ounodesign.com for details.